

WHY WOWW?

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS BELIEVE:

- ✚ WOWW provides enriched education programs not available before WOWW
- ✚ WOWW provides 'real world' education experiences that support and enhance classroom learning and state standards
- ✚ Teachers do not have time to research all programs from all providers
- ✚ Teachers recognize significant academic outcomes from enriched experiences that WOWW provides
- ✚ WOWW helps develop good citizenship

WHAT DO SCHOOLS GET FOR THE INVESTMENT?

- ✚ WOWW schools will have the option of a children's author on campus for a half-day writing workshop
- ✚ NO FEE for seats at Globe-News Center for programs that WOWW hosts
- ✚ NO FEE to 5th graders for WOWW Science Collaborative
- ✚ NO FEE for WOWW schools that participate in WOWW Day in the spring
- ✚ NO FEE for Professional Development opportunity
- ✚ The option of our Resident Artist on campus
- ✚ WOWW schools will have a WOWW Representative to book programs for the entire school year, answer questions, send monthly communiqué
- ✚ $5 per child to 'spend' on programs in the Educators' Resource Guide

HOW DO SCHOOLS FUND WOWW?

- ✚ Principals may use Title funds for campus investment
- ✚ Parent Associations may contribute to campus funding
- ✚ Schools may apply for grants through local philanthropic organizations such as their community Education Foundations
- ✚ Principals may use discretionary funds or those allocated for student field trips
- ✚ A local business or partner organization may help contribute to campus investment

HOW TO SHARE AWARENESS OF WOWW

- ✚ Advocate WOWW through a school newsletter to let parents know their children are receiving enriched programs
- ✚ Parent/School meetings are also a means of advocating WOWW
- ✚ Inform parents about WOWW during registration
- ✚ Parents are patrons and potentially our strongest advocates for WOWW, if parents are onboard with the program, the district will buy-in
- ✚ Attend a POWWOWW (Panhandle Opportunity With Window On a Wider World)
